

Mission Statement

At Another Source our job is to sow the seeds of success for both applicant and employer clients by positively presenting employment opportunity.

We are in business to:

- Provide a place where employees have the opportunity to contribute to the success of every job order
- Positively affect our community through our interaction with applicants, clients and community organizations
- Make a profit and have fun doing it

We define our growth by:

- Meeting and then exceeding defined sales plans
- Increasing the number of opportunities to help applicants secure employment
- Providing opportunities for our employees to foster their professional development
- Continuously increasing our ability to donate and share our resources with the community

We will continue to:

- Trust and be trustworthy
- Encourage one another
- Take accountability
- Treat others as we would want to be treated
- Balance life's priorities
